

Utah Camp Williams

Facility and Location

Camp Williams is located in Herriman and south of Salt Lake City. It consists of 25,488 acres supporting maneuver, small arms, and high caliber (up to 155mm artillery) training. It is the main training site for the Utah National Guard. The surrounding areas are utilized for specialized winter, desert, mountain, and amphibious training. Most of this training can be conducted within a 50 mile radius. Activities and tenants include a Regional Training Institute, the Marine Corps, the State Emergency Management Agency, and Utah Data Center. Full time staffing is currently approximately 250 persons.
